Dear Mr. Weillgart:

Thanks so much for showing me your "dictionary index". It seems like a terrific idea. Anything that will encourage children and adults to become more literate is welcome.

I found the dictionary simple and easy to use. I was able to locate words with no difficulty. I think dictionary use will increase when the method becomes simpler.

As the director of the Montessori Family School I am responsible for ordering books and other educational supplies. This is one that I would be interested in acquiring.

Thanks for your time and good luck.

Regards,

Jane Wechsler
